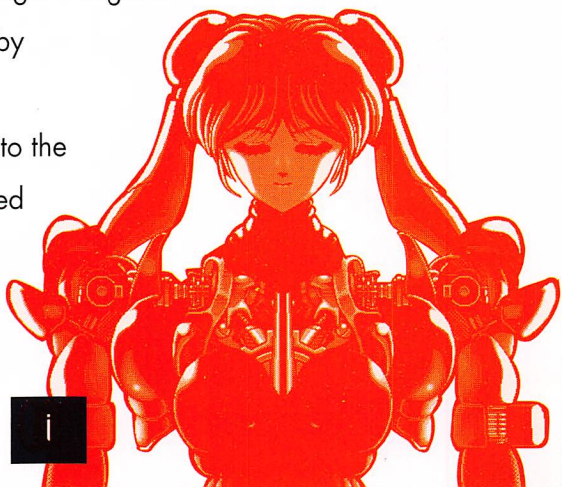
MEGATECH!



AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR PLAYERS

It's been too long of a wait. Most of us grew up with computers, from programming with punch cards to having our own notebook computers in our briefcase. But PC games have never been taken seriously; sure, the big guys make games for kids but they've left the rest of us out in the cold. Do we go see G-rated movies? Certainly not. (Unless of course, the kids want to see a movie and the wife makes us take them) No. We expect real entertainment like the kind Hollywood brings us each week in R-rated hit movies.

Well, it's not just a coincidence we at Megatech are just a stone's throw away from Hollywood. We are pioneering the new style of PC entertainment for the 90's!

Our wonderfully fresh and sexy Anime girls will surely delight you. Heck, they may never win an Academy Award but they'll surely win your heart!

We spent the last twenty-four months putting together a team of programmers and Anime artists, and we're excited about our development schedule. We will release 3 (more likely 5) new games in '94! But the team is sworn to secrecy... so don't temp them into giving you any info early !

As Megatech continues growing, we count on you, our satisfied and sometimes critical players to help us serve up even more exciting adventures!

Now that we've said all that, we invite you to check out our games on the following pages.

Happy Gaming!

CONTAINS PARTIAL NUDITY

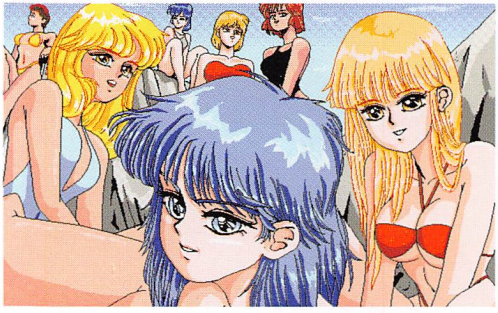
You'll come across some nasty fellows who aren't about to let go of these sexy girls so easily.

See, here's the thing. Ever tried to take control of a whole island? Sounds simple, right? Get plenty of goons, a cache load of AK-47s, and charge in like there's no tomorrow. Well, that's what Kaiser and his goons did.

Now, his buddies and him rule all of Cobra. They're livin' large and ruling with iron fists. Taking beautiful girls captive and peddling in white slavery. And the peace lovin' people of Cobra - have no one to turn to. Except for you, the retired high school jock who spent more time sacking cheerleaders than the opposing team!

Your high school sweetheart boasts how you're a big-time detective now, she goes on and on about how you own an agency, and how you still wear the venerable ol' trench coat and hat. And you ain't had the heart to tell her the truth. Although the women and booze keep you company at night, you've been miserable ever since you left your sweetheart. There ain't nothing better than true love.



So here's your chance to make up for all those lost years! Return home and conquer your true love's heart once again. No problem... all you need to do is take on a whole gang of armed and ruthless good-for-nothings all by yourself! How hard can that be?

Find out by playing Cobra Mission!

Tough guys will be around every corner!
Find the lovely ladies and rescue them!
Pack your bags and come join us !

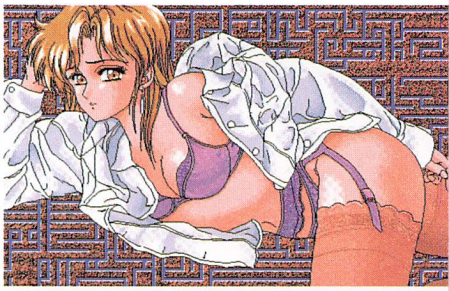
Ever wonder what game developers really wanted to include in their games? Babes, and plenty of them. Well, we've done it! This classic showdown reminds one of the old gunfights down at the OK corral.

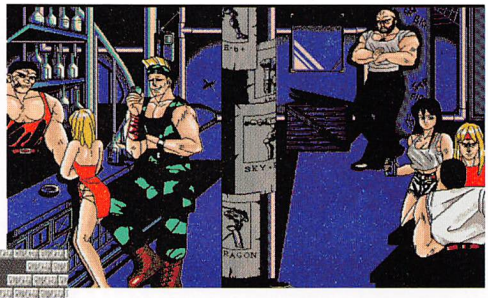


But no guns in this game, we're talking hand to hand combat! Assisted, of course, with the finest Robo Armor available. Strap on these babies and you'll be practically invincible! Yeah, nice feeling.

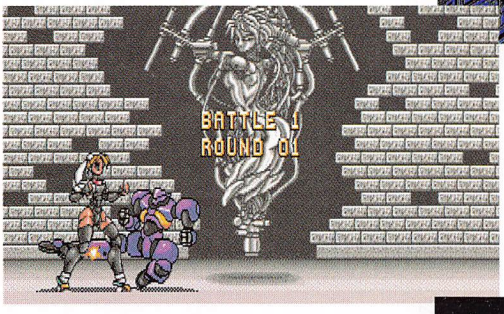
Hey, but that's not all. If that's all there was to it, we wouldn't be Megatech! We've added a bar - the kind of place where everyone knows your name. (clichés are great, aren't they?) You can pick up a couple of extra bucks - as you schmooze with the bar rats. And when you're ready to drop some money on some gorgeous babes, stick around for the hot bod contest! Beautiful bodies will stroll by for all to see!

This is what we call interactive entertainment!

So here's your chance to prove to your friends that you're still king of the joystick! It's like riding a bike. Once you've done it, there ain't no forgetting



And for those of you who think our Robo Babes are pushovers, wait and see. You might just have to swallow your pride after you're beaten by a babe - a Robo Babe!



Take the ultimate challenge - The Battle of the Robo Babes !

With animation and digitized speech, Kiki will make your blood boil!!

This ain't no school yard scuffle.

Cold Steel. Hot Babes.

The wait is over. Computer Grand Master and Samurai descendant, Shigeru Mabuchi, unveils to you the mysteries of Xentar and its beautiful inhabitants.

The forces of Darkness distracted a heroic wayward knight with booze and women just long enough to steal the legendary Falcon Sword-the only weapon a demon fears.

Xentar's doom nears ever more closely, and only you can stop it!

Alone, bedraggled, with a happy smile on your face, you take on the role-playing character known simply as Desmond, Slayer of Monsters, Avenger of the Wronged, Lover of Easy Women. Your first task is to search for and find your trusted brother-in-arms, Rolf, a valiant yet humble knight who will keep you out of many a peril.

Called "the best damned game in the whole universe" by us at Megatech, Knights of Xentar is available on either 3.5" diskettes or in a spectacular CD version. The CD features beautifully-drawn Anime graphics and full digitized speech for the entire game. But most of all, no one, and we mean no one else, has packed as many as we have in this third chapter of the Babes and More Babes series published by your friends here at Megatech.

FEATURES:

- Awesome looking characters.
  Just take a look at the red-head on the left.
- A killer script written by Dave Moskowitz,
  The Sultan of Wit.
- Tons and tons of Anime art by top artists.
- FREE mouse pad of the red-head on the left.
